CURRICULUM VITAE: 2006

Achievements at the Upper Columbia River Mental Health Center

- Ran a single person Mental Health office for seven years in Invermere and Golden, British Columbia. Initially provided the only counseling services available there.
- Provided counseling to all age groups and all variety of mental health problems, although focus was mainly adults and teens.
- Provided individual, marital, family, group and consultative services.
- Created two clinical teams in Golden and Invermere, focusing on cutting edge therapeutic methods.
- Coordinated Karl Tomm Workshops in both towns. Karl is the Director of Family Therapy at the University of Calgary. These workshops took place from 1991-1995.
- Co-created the first short term Narrative and Solution based treatment program with convicted assaultive men in southeastern British Columbia.
- Worked collaboratively in a co-therapeutic effort with especially challenging cases, e.g. male violence, violent couples, families with entrenched habits of manic depression, obsessive compulsions, bipolar mood swings, etc.
- Worked extensively and promoted reflective teams from 1991 to present.
- Created *The Upper Columbia Networker, an in-house journal of therapeutic experiences and solution/narrative applications to clinical work.
- Worked as a consultant to Senior Home Care Services, David Thompson Secondary High School, the Ktunaxa and Shuswap Native Bands, and Social Services.
- Instituted therapeutic change in working with Native Bands. The culturally respectful models of Just Therapy founded with the Maori of New Zealand were applied to my work with the local Aboriginal Peoples.
- Coordinated *Community Emergency Efforts to defuse a life-threatening suicide pact of local teens after the Kurt Colbain suicide.
- Advocate of utilizing accountability structures in systems where gender/culture sensitivity is needed.
- Co-created weekly in-service training for our therapeutic team in Invermere.
